

Worship Warfare And Intercession By Robert Misst

A glorious spiritual awakening is on the horizon, sparked by the combustible mix of worship and prayer. Dick Eastman calls this combination “intercessory worship,” and in this one-of-a-kind guidebook, he explains how worship-saturated prayer rises like a fragrance before God’s throne to declare His glory and reign over all circumstances, relationships and governments—and he shows readers how to engage in life-transforming intercessory worship. Eastman reveals why intercessory worship is the greatest last-days prayer movement in history and invites believers to join the worldwide Body of Christ in fanning the flames of revival through biblical worship and scriptural prayer. The world will be transformed as the presence and power of the Spirit pour forth from the heart of God.

Samuel Rees Howells, A Life of Intercession: The Legacy of Prayer and Spiritual Warfare of an Intercessor by Richard A. Maton, Paul Backholer and Mathew Backholer Rees Howells, a powerful intercessor, taught his son Samuel the principles of intercession and commissioned him some weeks before his death, stating, “Whatever you do, stand and maintain these intercessions.” For the next fifty-four years, Samuel Rees Howells exercised a powerful intercessory ministry as he focused prayer on gospel liberty, in order for the good news of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to be given to every creature. With the mantle of intercession weighing heavily upon him, Samuel spent decades participating with others in their own countries, in profound spiritual struggles that shook world events and shaped history for God’s glory! Discover how Samuel was led by the Holy Spirit to exercise authority over the principalities and powers, and to ‘pray through’ until God’s purposes were fulfilled in many lethal world conflicts. Learn how God still intervenes in world history, from the Korean War to the Cuban Missile Crisis, and from the Six-Day War to the fall of the Soviet Union! Beginning in the days of Rees Howells, this book continues this powerful story of intercession and traces its effectual legacy into the twenty-first century. Filled with principles of intercession, faith and spiritual warfare, this book provides a fascinating insight into what is possible when the Holy Spirit finds an individual, who will stand in the gap and become a channel for His intercession. Richard is married to Kristine who joined Rees Howells’ Bible College in 1936 and prayed alongside him. Together Richard and Kristine spent more than 120 years at the College!

Before the fall of man, when Adam walked in fellowship with God in the Garden of Eden, he experienced God’s glory with a spiritual connection. He had a perfect relationship with God and saw Him face-to-face. When Adam disobeyed God and fell, everything changed. He died spiritually and his connection to the spirit realm of God was severed. With his spiritual eyes now closed, he was left with a soul and a body of flesh. Adam’s ability to see into the spirit realm was gone, and the glory that had rested upon his physical body was gone as well. In this book, you will see what fellowship in the Spirit is, and how God has restored this relationship with His children. God wants us to know Him personally, not just know about Him. He wants a face-to-face relationship with us. You are invited to see and experience what spiritual life in the presence of God can be.

Every Psalm has been carefully summarised and classified using a unique system of easy to reference icons, building into a summary which reveals the intent and context of each of the Psalms' five volumes. A comprehensive system of footnotes complements each section. HOW TO ENJOY THE PSALMS explains: the chronology, structure and layout of the five volumes. who wrote and edited the Psalms. important keys such as numbers, first mentions & Names of God. the meaning of 'technical' words such as Shoshannim, Maschil & Selah. how the Psalms have been used throughout history in Israel & Church. their prophetic end-time application. next steps - how to employ the Psalms with greatest effect. I slept one night and midnight I was woken up by the Spirit of God and I found a man-shadow with hands and legs standing before me. Some how he was close but couldn't reach me because of the bloodline between me and him. Diabolical persons use to send such evil messengers to attack their victims. I saw a case where such messenger was sent to an unprotected victim and by morning the person ran mad. As this human shadow saw my eyes it quickly moved back. As it moved back it as well moved up simultaneously until it disappeared into the ceiling and roof. Child of God you are protected and have divine immunity whether you know it or not Why war? We fight because God called us soldiers of the cross. Weapons of our warfare has become like song in the body of Christ or the church, but how many Christians know how to use the weapons of our warfare or apply them to the daily encounter in deliverance against the wiles of the devil and his agents, against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places, the satanist network and their networking. How do we use these weapons to release and unleashes God's supernatural power. How to appropriate the authority of the believer and enter the winning ways. Make no mistake—spiritual warfare is real. As you make your way into intentional mission and ministry, you may find yourself facing various kinds of opposition and resistance. You may experience great discouragement or doubt. Temptations may threaten to derail you. And you may even encounter active attack from spiritual forces of evil. But fear not. Veteran missionaries Jack and Mary Anne Voelkel give us confidence that God can overcome the enemy's spiritual attacks on us. When we face harassment and persecution from the principalities and powers, we need to know that Satan is not on equal footing with God. Jesus has disarmed the forces of evil through his death and resurrection. We have available to us tremendous resources for spiritual defense and offense, and by putting on the whole armor of God, we can take practical, prayerful steps toward spiritual triumph. Be not afraid. In the midst of spiritual warfare, the greater reality is that Jesus is Lord over all powers and authorities. He has already achieved the victory. Includes questions for group discussion.

Sadly, many who are called to be great prayer warriors never discover their calling because they are too busy eyeing with envy the fruit of other people's prayers. Whether you are a "list" pray-er, a warfare pray-er, a personal intercessor--any of at least a dozen prayer specialties --every Christian has a piece of God's heart to pray and His power to carry to a lost and dying world. This book will help you discover how you can be most effective in praying for your family, your friends and neighbors, your church, your city, and your nation.

INTRODUCTION The introduction sets forth my purpose in writing to prove from the Bible that intercession in this day of restoration of truth should be characterized by praise and rejoicing in victory rather than in agonizing of soul in heaviness of spirit. 1. A LIFE-CHANGING PRAYER This chapter narrates the events that led up to that prayer. 2. TRANSFORMED PRAYER LIFE The result of a divine revelation. 3. OLD TESTAMENT INTERCESSORS EVALUATED This chapter explains why the Old Testament saints interceded with travail. Their relationship to God was as servants to a holy, righteous Judge instead of as sons to a loving, heavenly Father. Because their sins were only covered and not removed, they could not escape the fact of sin-consciousness. Having no boldness as forgiven sons to come into God's presence, they came before Him with contrition seeking mercy. 4. NEW TESTAMENT INTERCESSION DEFINED An intercessor is a mediator who seeks to reconcile two conflicting parties. The Old Testament intercessor put God in remembrance of His Word or Covenant and held God to the fulfilling of it. This is true also of the New Testament intercessor, but there is an added dimension of spiritual warfare that the Old Testament believer did not experience. Only since the resurrection of the Lord Jesus and the devil's eternal defeat does the Church have the authority to come directly against the devil to bind him and render his demonic activities ineffective. 5. WORD OF AUTHORITY, THE CHURCH' S PREROGATIVE The account in Exodus 17 of the Children of Israel defeating the Amalekites while Moses' hands were uplifted typifies the word of authority that has been given to the believer in Christ Jesus. We prove that Moses' rod typifies the authority of God committed to man and released through praise. 6. PRAISING WARRIORS The Levites during the time of the Tabernacle of Moses were the royal guards or warriors protecting the Tabernacle. Later King David appointed the Levites to praise God continually before the Ark in the Tabernacle that he established in Zion. The Levites then became spiritual warriors, who through praise and worship, engaged in spiritual warfare. Second Chronicles 20 is a picture of God's spiritual warriors overcoming the onslaughts of the devil through praise. 7. PRAISE, A NEW ORDER King David's establishing a new order for praise and worship of God before the Tabernacle he set up in Zion is a type of the new order of worship and intercession that David's greater Son, the Lord Jesus, established for His Church in this Age of Grace. The Levites praising and praying before the Ark reveal to us, New Testament priests unto God and spiritual warriors, how to pray. 8. PRAISE IN EXCHANGE FOR HEAVINESS This chapter deals with the prophecy in Isaiah 61:3 that predicts the change that would take place in the ministry of the intercessor in the Church Age. It contrasts the intercessors of the Old and New Covenants. 9. PRAISE, THE DIVINE PATTERN This chapter is an exposition of Psalm 149 as a pattern for anointed and effective intercession. It reveals spiritual warfare to be united with and an extension of exalted praise. 10. BIRTHED THROUGH PRAISE Isaiah's prophecy in chapter 66:7-8 gives an astounding prediction that the intercessors of this Age would intercede with praise and rejoicing, and that such intercession would bring to pass the final great revival of this Church Age! 11. PRAISE, THE VICTORY CHARIOT Song of Solomon 6:10-13 is a picture in allegory of those tha

Since the beginning of time, a fierce spiritual battle has raged between the forces of good and evil. Today the spiritual entities of wickedness are winning, burdening countless souls in a world lacerated by evil. To claim victory, God is calling us to engage in spiritual warfare as the only way to save the world from the desolation that is sure to come. In these pages, theologian Venatius Oforka explains that we are part of a spiritual web through which God acts to save souls. No longer does God create out of nothing. Instead, He achieves His purposes through the prayers and actions we pour in. To win such a sophisticated war, Oforka introduces us to the supernatural weapons of war and how we can shape the events that affect our earthly and eternal destiny. From Father Oforka, you will learn: How the ministry of intercession can bring salvation to millions of hopeless souls How to frustrate the Devil's evil schemes How to free yourself from the encumbrances of the flesh so you can fully participate in spiritual warfare The two basic actions Christians must undertake to survive evil days The profound advantage you have over Satan and his works How and why God needs intercessors to save souls Why God requires us to act before He steps in The critical role of the angels and the saints in fighting evil The importance of suffering in spiritual warfareWhy God needs our prayers to make His Kingdom come The Art of Spiritual Warfare is the one book you need to awaken our world from its spiritual hibernation and to exercise the awesome privilege of working with God in the realization of His Kingdom.

"Worship, Warfare and Intercession before the Throne of God" was born from the foundry of over twenty-three years ministry of prophetic intercession for the nations. Bob travelled with prophetic intercessors to China and Japan in the Far East, and to many nations on the continents of Asia, Africa, Europe, the Middle East, the Americas, Canada and Australasia. In 2010, in a vision, Bob was caught up into heaven, where the Lord gave him a glimpse of the worship, warfare and intercession before the throne of God. Later, God told him to write the book. "Worship, Warfare and Intercession before the Throne of God" is that book. This book teaches us how we can pattern our worship according to the worship in heaven. It calls us to join with heaven, in intercession and warfare, for the return of the Lord and the setting up of His kingdom on the earth. Events are unfolding at a rapid speed, and the church, the true bride, must get herself ready. Heaven waits to hear her voice, as one sound with heaven. This book has two parts. Part I describes the worship that Bob experienced in heaven. Bob teaches about the seven aspects of worship in heaven, and how they are key ingredients for our worship in the last days on the earth. He has teamed with Jill Shannon (see www.coffeetalkswithmessiah.com) who produced a worship CD which puts the teachings into a practical manner. This CD is really awesome. Part II of the book is about intercession in heaven. As each seal of the scroll is broken in heaven by the Lamb, the book explodes with the reality of the intercessions in the book of Revelation. These intercessions born out of worship, move events towards a definite purpose: The restoration and renewal of the earth for the return of King Jesus. Heaven invites earth to join in this ONE SOUND of worship, warfare and intercession. The final chapter of the book offers practical suggestions how to use the book and CD for worship and intercession for small groups and larger groups.
